

Sports Insurance Program Summary

Insurance Certificate Program

Insurance certificates are available on the internet at www.aausports.org (click on Insurance Certificate Program Icon) You may request a any third party certificates on the internet or by mailing the application to your AAU District Office.

GENERIC INSURANCE CERTIFICATE is for all member clubs at no cost and is their "Proof of Insurance". This certificate does not list or name any facilities as Additional Insured.

AB INSURANCE CERTIFICATE is for all AB member clubs and is their "AB Proof of Insurance". This certificate does not list or name any facilities as Additional Insured.

THIRD PARTY AB CERTIFICATE is for AAU Member clubs with AB membership participating in a Non AAU Event that specifically need to name the Entity hosting that event. AB Membership is required and coverage is limited to the AAU Registered Club Members only.

THIRD PARTY PRACTICE INSURANCE CERTIFICATE (the third party is also known as a certificate holder, additional insured) is for all member clubs that need to specifically name the school, gym, facility, venue, site, etc., that the club uses for practices.

THIRD PARTY SANCTIONED EVENT INSURANCE CERTIFICATE, (the third party is also known as a certificate holder, additional insured) is for member clubs hosting an AAU Sanctioned Event that need to specifically name the school, gym, facility, venue, site, etc., being used for that event. The Event Sanction must have been approved and assigned an Event Sanction Code, in advance of this request.

How to Report an Incident

An important part of the AAU's liability/accident medical insurance is the prompt and accurate reporting of incidents and claims.

- An incident is an occurrence that may result in a claim
- A claim is an actual demand for damages resulting from an accident

(a sports accident claim form can be found at www.aausports.org>Insurance)

Athlete Incidents

Minor incidents to athletes should be reported to American International Companies Sports Accident and Health Claims by completing an AAU Incident Report Form. For any serious injuries, call 1-800-551-0824.

Other incidents

Any incident which involves serious injury to a spectator or damage to property of third party or altercations between individuals should be reported to American International Companies at 1-617-330-1100 or Foy Insurance Group at 1-603-772-4781. An incident report form must also be completed.

Sports accident claim forms may also be obtained from your AAU District Office. The forms must be completed by a coach or official other than the injured person within 30 days of the date the incident occurred, even if the insured person is entitled to payment or services under a separate health or accident insurance plan.

All sections of the sports accident claim form must be fully completed, including the sanction number and signature of the AAU official filling out the form.

Return the completed sports accident claim form to Nahga Claim Services, P O Box 189 -88 Main St., Bridgton, Maine, 04009, 800-952-4320 (O) 207-647-4569 (fax)

When processing participant accident claims, Nahga Claim Services will request all bills for expenses incurred, including full addresses of doctors and facilities involved.

Amateur Athletic Union Insurance Program – Available Exclusively to AAU Members

General Overview

AAU Standard Coverage

In conjunction with its overall sanctioning and membership program, the AAU maintains an insurance plan that provides coverage for its associations, member clubs, and teams, and individual members conducting and/or participating in AAU sanctioned events. There are two types of coverage provided in the AAU insurance program: general liability and participant accident. This brochure provides a summary of the coverage and benefits available to AAU members.

AAU Added Benefit (AB) Coverage

The AAU's insurance program extends coverage to AB cardholders for certain events not sanctioned by the AAU. More information on AB membership coverage is available in the AAU Added Benefit (AB) Summary section of this brochure.
